

Public Consultation

Proposed Cultural Development Policy for the City of Montréal

Thematic Workshops

The Office de consultation publique de Montréal Commission responsible for consulting the population on the draft Cultural Development Policy believes that further reflection is required on conditions promoting the necessary co-operation among players, prior to the hearing of briefs.

THEMATIC WORKSHOPS

In this context, three thematic workshops, corresponding to the axes around which the policy revolves, are offered to the public in order to further define questions of co-operation related to the areas of intervention, and to the orientations stemming therefrom. The objective is to promote discussion among the members of the various groups involved.

Schedule for thematic workshops

The three workshops will be held at the offices of the OCPM, 1550 Metcalfe, 14th floor, from 8:30 a.m. to noon on the following days:

Date	Theme
January 31, 2005	Developing access to arts and culture
February 1, 2005	Improving the cultural quality of the living environment
February 2, 2005	Providing support for the arts, artists and culture, and enhancing Montréal's international reach and reputation

Everyone is invited to participate.
