

Wellington Street Winter pedestrianization:

Lucy, age 10:

It's not fair for citizens to have a tiny amount of space on the sidewalk and the cars have such a big space. We don't have enough pedestrian time because we only have it when we are not in school. Having the pedestrian street all year would make it easier for us to get to school and other places.