

This has never been put up for proper public proposals with full specs and guidelines. The hotel is a poor use of the space and a handful of artists studios is using the arts community as a tool of gentrification. Make some studio spaces yes but not as an attraction for tourism/hotel guests. Make the rest actually affordable housing, and related relative resources for the community near the building.

Max Douglas aka Salgood Sam
Resident of a neighboring area and professional artist