

 All iCloud

It seems to me there are not enough affordable spaces for artists already so why would take this space away from artists to make a hotel?

The art scene is what makes montreal attractive, not hotels. We should be protecting what makes montreal special and unique, not exploiting it.

Two artists spaces is not enough. We need to create coops for artists.

