

I strongly object to any development in the wetlands. The wetlands are important for many species and also for all Montrealers. We need to preserve the wetlands as they are now.

Allan Rosenzweig